Red Knights Motorcycle Club

by Charles Clarkson Sr. (revised)

During the summer of 1982 several firefighters were visiting "Randy's Cycle Shop" in Boylston, Massachusetts and the subject of motorcycle clubs came up. Soon they were grousing about the fact that law enforcement people had a motorcycle club known as "Blue Knights" but there was no club for firefighters. After this tire kicking session, shop owner Randy Wilson suggested to Ed Wright, a firefighter from Northboro, MA, that he stop talking about the lack of a club and form one instead.

Recognizing a good idea when he heard one, Ed Wright went home that afternoon and made up some hand printed posters inviting firefighters from the area to meet and determine if there was enough interest to form a motorcycle club. On August 17, 1982, Fire Chief Jack Pierce allowed a small group of motorcycle enthusiasts to meet at Northboro Fire Headquarters to lay the ground work for the formation of a motorcycle club.

On October 19, 1982, firefighters Norm Beausoleil, Bob Bourassa, Bob Goulet, David Hamilton, Dave Hunt, Colin Mackey, Don Parker, Jon Tripp, Roger Wentzell, Ed Wright, and Chief Pierce met again. There was interest in promoting the positive image of motorcycling while enjoying the camaraderie of other firefighters. It was decided then that this group would be known as the Red Knights Motorcycle Club.

News of this new club spread like a grass fire. In July of 1983 two chapters were formed in Connecticut. In October of that year a second Massachusetts chapter was formed. Soon applications came in from such distant places as Nevada and Louisiana. In August of 1983 the founding members realized that the organization was rapidly growing beyond original expectations. To properly handle this growth they elected a committee to serve as a National Board of Directors. With applications from Ontario and Saskatchewan, Canada, the club became Red Knights International Firefighters Motorcycle Club.

In 1984 the first club convention was held in Boylston, MA. Each year since that time a convention has been held for all RED KNIGHTS. Convention sites are listed on the back.

The 10th and 25th Anniversaries of the RED KNIGHTS were celebrated at conventions held in Worcester, MA 1992 and 2007.

As a result of the seed that was planted at Randy's in Boylston in 1982, there are now over 450 Red Knights Chapters throughout the United States and Canada, and throughout the world with a membership of over 10,000.

Massachusetts Chapter 2 was that second Massachusetts Chapter, founded in October 1983. Celebrating our 40th anniversary in 2023, it is the third oldest chartered chapter second only to the founding fathers of Massachusetts 1 and our neighbors in CT-2, with a current membership of over 70.
